

Stormwater Management in Western Sydney (An event of EA Western Sydney Regional Group)

When: 3 May 2012, from 14:00 until 17:00pm

Venue: University of Western Sydney, Building BB room 1.01,
Werrington South (Penrith) Campus

Program:	○ Registration	13:45- 14:00
	○ Presentation by Geoff Hunter	14:00-15:00
	○ Questions and Answers	15:00-15:15
	○ Afternoon tea & Networking break	15:15-15:45
	○ Presentation by Dr. Peter Coombes	15:45-16:45
	○ Questions and Answers	16:45-17:00

Presenters: 1. Mr. Geoff Hunter
Senior Environmental Engineer – J.Wyndham & Prince

2. Dr. Peter Coombes
Director – Bonacci

Topics: 1. Stormwater Quality Management in Western Sydney
2. Integrated Water Cycle Management

Who Should Attend: All engineers, students and young engineers who have an interest in stormwater quantity and quality management or integrated water cycle management.

Refreshments: Light refreshments will be provided

Contact Person: Marlène van der Sterren

RSVP: Online:
https://events.engineersaustralia.org.au/ei/getdemo.ei?id=526&s=_6IS0SM3CW

Map to the venue is attached herein. Paid Parking is available.

Continuing Professional Development (CPD): Attendance to this presentation may contribute toward CPD as per Engineers Australia criteria.

For more direction, please visit: http://www.uws.edu.au/campuses_structure/cas/campuses/penrith

Sponsored by:

This is an Engineers Australia Western Sydney Regional Group (EA WSRG) organised event. EA WSRG organises events throughout the year to expose its members to different industries, key projects and establishments around the region and also arranges for guest speakers to present on topical subjects. This is a unique way to provide the membership with the opportunity to network with fellow members and to see and learn things they would not in their normal daily work.