

EWB Pathways – W.A.S.H

Are you interested in water and sanitation in the developing world?
Would you like to volunteer in a water or sanitation project in South Asia, Southeast Asia or remote Australia?

Join us for a short course seminar series aimed towards both professionals and students wishing to gain the skills and knowledge required to undertake development projects.

WHEN: Tuesdays 6.30-8.30 pm

WHERE: UTS, (5 min walk from Central Station)

HOW: Registration online at <http://www.ewb.org.au/events/75/11045>

Session	Topics	Guest Speakers
Week 1 30 th October	Water and Sanitation within the developing world	Kathryn Harries (UNICEF and RedR Australia)
Week 2 6 th November	Household Water technologies	Dr Paul Byleveld (Manager of the Water Unit, NSW Health)
Week 3 13 th November	Low cost Sanitation technologies	John Mckibbin (ISF and former NSW EWB president)
Week 4 20 th November	Implementation strategies for WASH projects	TBC

Price	Members	Non-Members
Professionals	$50	$100
Students	$10	$20

Become a member: www.ewb.org.au/becomemember | get involved: www.ewb.org.au/nsw
contact us: nsw@ewb.org.au | connect with us: www.facebook.com/ewbnswh / @ewbnswh

